

All Hazards Disaster Response

Course Plan

The AHDR course is an internationally recognized continuing education program designed to offer a systems-based approach to disaster preparedness and response to EMS practitioners. AHDR focuses on the response component of the four phases of emergency management, with an emphasis on the medical aspects of care and response.

Start Time	End Time	Description	Instructor
09:00	09:15	Welcome and Course Introduction	Morgan Young
09:15	09:30	Hazard Vulnerability Analysis (HVA) Activity	Morgan Young
09:30	09:55	Lesson 1: Structural Fires	Morgan Young
09:55	10:20	Lesson 2: Radiologic Events	Morgan Young
10:20	10:35	Practitioner Preparedness Self-Assessment	Morgan Young
10:35	10:50	Break
10:50	11:30	Lesson 3: Natural Disasters and Infrastructure Failures	Morgan Young
11:30	12:30	Lunch
12:30	12:50	Lesson 4: Triage	Morgan Young
12:50	13:10	Triage Simulation Exercise	all instructors
13:10	13:35	Lesson 5: Transportation Incidents	Morgan Young
13:35	13:50	LCAN Drill	Morgan Young
13:50	14:15	Lesson 6: Infectious Disease	Morgan Young
14:15	14:30	Mass-Casualty Tabletop Exercise	all instructors
14:30	14:45	Break
14:45	15:10	Lesson 7: Active Shooter	Morgan Young
15:10	16:00	Active Shooter Tabletop Exercise	Morgan Young
16:00	17:00	Post-Test

All course locations are CMH EMS Headquarters (1525 N Oakland, Bolivar, MO) unless otherwise specified.

For more information: theron.becker@citizensmemorial.com

To register: www.ozarksems.com/education-application.php

